1. Request for adjournment (R.F.A.) will not be accepted in respect of cases pertaining to the year 2009 or before; further, no request will be entertained for adjournment of batch cases/similar circumstanced cases and in matters where interim order is continuing. R.F.As should contain reasons for adjournment sought for. It is further informed that the Hon'ble Bench while considering the RFA or when the matter is called, may require presence of concerned learned Counsel or his/her junior or representative or proxy Counsel. It is once again reiterated that filing of RFA need not be construed as adjournment per se.
2. Revision-modification in the distribution of work among various Courts, effective from 24.10.2011, has been notified separately.
