Subject: Heartiest Congratulations and Welcome from Forum of MTNL Unions and Associations.

On behalf of the Forum of MTNL Unions and Associations, it is our distinct pleasure to extend our heartfelt congratulations to you on assuming the esteemed position of Cabinet Minister of Communication. Your illustrious career and dedication to public service make us confident that under your visionary leadership, the telecommunications sector in India will reach unprecedented heights.

We take immense pride in welcoming you and look forward to your dynamic and progressive approach in steering the communications and telecommunications landscape. The state-owned telecom company, Mahanagar Telephone Nigam Limited (MTNL), has a legacy of excellence and a committed workforce eager to contribute to your visionary plans and policies.

The officers and employees of MTNL assure you of our unwavering support and cooperation in all your endeavours. We are dedicated to working together towards realizing the full potential of our telecom sector and ensuring that MTNL continues to be a significant contributor to the nation's growth and connectivity goals.

We also take this opportunity to request a courtesy meeting with your esteemed self at your earliest convenience. This meeting will enable us to discuss and align on the collaborative efforts required to drive forward the vision for MTNL and the broader telecom sector. We are keen to share our insights and hear your valuable guidance on the way forward.
