Subject: Long delay in the payment of terminal benefits to the retired employees-request for immediate settlement of pending terminal benefits.

Sir,

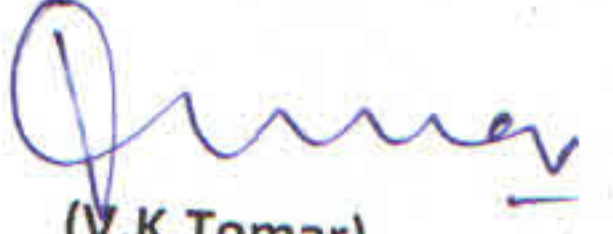

No reason can justify this much delay in the payment of terminal benefits to the retired employees. Now the tolerance power of the retired employees has burst and they are asking us to get justice for them.

We also have no reason not to fight for their legitimate right at the time when they require us at this juncture after their retirement. They have total right to ask their delayed payment with interest. I hope much is not required to explain the heart burning and blistering feelings and sentiments of these employees. Your good self may understand the necessity of immediate settlement of long-delayed payment of terminal benefits.

We request your good self to immediately make arrangement of sufficient funds to clear all pending cases and also to ensure timely settlement of such cases in future to avoid any unrest amongst the serving as well as retired employees.

With kind regards

Yours sincerely

(V.K.Tomar)
